

CLAIMS

- 5 1.- Impervious closure for pulverulent products, characterized in that it includes a strip of felt fabric which is approximately 12 mm. thick, that is pressured by a support flat bar that, in turn, is pushed by plate springs against a steel rotor, the aforementioned plate springs are maintained fix using a locknut and a regulating nut that can be used 10 to adjust the pressure on the rotor and to obtain a suitable pressure.